Marsh Notes

Red-winged blackbird

Oil, 16 x 36

“Marsh Notes” developed out of reference collected over 20 years ago that I had filed away for future use. While looking through these files for an idea, I was struck by the pattern and similarity between a photo of cattails I had taken, and music notes. A horizontal composition accentuated this, but my only regrets are that I didn’t make it longer and pattern the cattail heads to an actual piece of classical music. Inspiration for another painting!
