

REBECCA LATHAM

Resides: Hastings, Minnesota

Turtle Jam

Turtles

Watercolor, 3 x 8

I came across these turtles during one of my family's shoots for other wildlife and was struck by the arrangement of the turtles and mood. All of them were doing their best to compete for the prime locations in the afternoon sun, though not all of them were able to obtain one. In painting this miniature, I was very interested in showing the play of light throughout.