

It's wonderful to watch a good rider and horse in action. If one wishes to be close to an animal, my first thought is to ride a horse. Horse and rider can work together as one—jumping, racing, cutting cows, and the list goes on. Each depends on the other and the team action can appear seamless. It feels like a dance to ride a horse. I like to imagine how it would feel to ride in slow motion.

ESTHER LIDSTROM

Resides: Mt. Sinai, New York
b. 1947, New York

Olympic Hope
Horse
Mixed media, 14 x 14