Pasture Pals

Yearling horse

Bronze, 12.5 x 18.75 x 6.25

From the time I drew my first horse, at the age of four, I was set for a life built around horses. I have portrayed innumerable images. Many times I have the title of a sculpture before I start the piece itself.

The title "Pasture Pals" inspired me to make my vision a reality. I have often seen foals, yearlings and horses grooming each other and these yearlings remind me of my sightings.
