

*An eagle pair, Lifemates living atop the cedars High cliffs reign below and beckon the winds to sweep
Up the rock faces and lift the wings on high Singing us awake in the morning hours and serenading Us throughout the days of living and loving on this rocky isle*

Like Sufi dancers the heart-wing connection spins these lives Into union with the cosmos and the enfolding of winged tips Embraces the coupling of souls Sing to me as I praise and caress your being My dear one.

LEO E. OSBORNE
Resides: Guemes Island, Washington
b. 1947, Massachusetts, USA

Eagle Song
Eagle
Bronze, 21 x 25 x 12